GENERAL MARKET REPORT.

New York, November 21, 1899.

COFFEE—Considerable activity was observed on the Coffee Exchange to-day, after a poor start.

The opening was steady at a decline of 5 points.

The market closed with a slight upward trend.

The all day there was a rise of 15 to 20 points on active general buying, led off by foreign buyers.

The bull market was encouraged by a cable from Amsterdam stating that the monthly Dutch auction had been held at record prices.

The price of 84c per pound was exceeded by 85c, good ordinary Java selling at 84c.

With the market strong and very active, profit taking was evident.

The market showed underlying strength.

The close was steady in tone, with prices net 10 to 15 points higher.

Total sales were 48,000 bags.

The market was firm, the session was the place question.

As to the real effect of this dredged disease upon the movement in Brazil, or sentimentally in speculative circles, there was little in the way of further news up to date.

The market for spot coffee showed improvement.

Buyers purchases were the rule, with prices at the close on the basis of exchange for invoices into and 79c-74 for jobbing parcels of No. 7 Rio.

Total sales were 20,000 bags.

The Hamburg market will be closed to-morrow, on account of a holiday.

The range of contract prices in the local market to-day was as follows:
